1. Treasurer Report: Balance $14,042.89. Nothing outstanding
2. Pies: Sales Dates 2/10-2/26
 - Teachers to distribute Packets
 - Sign up genius for pick up
 - Pick up March 16 at old elementary with delivery at 2 pm
3. Kasey Karlson: The dance team attended The Dance Challenge competition Saturday in Cedar Rapids. They placed 2nd place with both their jazz and hip hop routine. Even beating out some 3A and 4A schools.

The girls are preparing for their home dance show next Saturday. The team has learned a total of 11 dance routines this season. 6 of these 11 routines they have choreographed themselves and are absolutely incredible. They will be hosting a kids dance clinic next Friday as well. We are very excited to have 37 kids signed up for the clinic!

Their practices and dance season will end next week with their show, but their final performance will be at the BGM dance show March 27th. We will start tryouts for next year late April or early May.
4. AD Report: Tri Rivers art Festival most likely virtual. Voting to be held 2/11
 - School is working on a new website. SAMS could be under organizations. This will be easier to update and maintain.
 - SAMS to come back with ideas for our page on the website

10. Aby Stoll: Art is going well. We are still finishing up the projects that I talked about in the last SAMS meeting. Fifth grade is still finishing up their metal embossing projects, and we just talked about standard 9, which has to do with criteria for different artworks. Sixth grade is finishing up their books, and we are about to start work on 3 essential vocabulary words for them to know. Third grade is doing a "name swirl" project, which I have included an example of below. As we finish these, I will put some student examples on my teacher Instagram account: @astollteach

Here's my unfinished example for the "name swirl":

Next meeting March 10th at 7 pm
